

The Club Turns One Year Old

October 2002

ClubFest 2002 Kicks Off New Era for City Workers

Just one of many happy families at ClubFest 2002.

December 2002

Festival of Lights: City's Holiday Tradition Shines

Last December, the Club helped celebrate the City's beloved Festival of Lights in Griffith Park while officially ringing in the Christmas season.

May 2003

DWP West Sends Hugs From Home

In May, the Club was only too proud to be able to recognize the DWP's West yard, which raised money to purchase a truckload of items which the yard then sent to the troops overseas. Here (from left), Steve Summers and Randy Leedom spearheaded the effort. Good going, West yard!

Happy Birthday, Club!

The Club—technically the City Employees Club of Los Angeles—was created one year ago with the idea of building a true community of City employees. And it has been a great success: Many thousands (and growing) of Club members are part of one of the most exciting things to happen to being a City employee in years.

Below are just a few highlights of the Club's first year—a year filled with fun events, saying hello to new employees, bidding farewell to retiring ones, and on and on.

Here's to all of us, and many more great years of the Club. The best is yet to come!

January 2003

Bigger and Better: The Club Celebrates 75 Years of Serving You

In January, we celebrated the fact that the LACEA, the parent of the Club, has been serving City employees like you for 75 years. In this photo from 1990, Medina Leticia Torres helps "prepare" the refund checks, a prominent activity of the LACEA.

The Life She Saved Ultimately Changed Hers

DOT Traffic Officer, Barbara Hartsfield

Photo courtesy Kenneth Heinsius/DOT

June 2003

City Says Thanks to Dozens Who Demonstrated Exemplary Service

Last June, the Club helped the City celebrate the dedication and service of some of its veteran employees. Here, City Employee Lynn McCord receives her recognition.

Fire Dept. Hosts Their Children With Annual 'Bring Kids' Day

Event organizer Capt. Alicia Mathis with some of the department's offspring.