Fall Brings Its Special Holidays

It's official; autumn is here! Halloween is just around the corner (I vowed this year to not steal my kids' candy while they're sleeping) as well Thanksgiving. Columbus Day is Oct. 11, and National Boss Day is on the 16th (that's a Saturday ... I guess I'll have everyone come in to celebrate ... just kidding, Club team). Also, Daylight Saving Time ends Oct. 31st, which means that it will be much easier to put Noah and Isaiah to bed now that it will be darker earlier. (The first 10 Club members who e-mail me with the name of the person who came up with the idea of Daylight Saving Time will get two free movie tickets.)

As I have mentioned many times before, the City Employees Club is all about celebrating the lives and work of City employees.

That's our vision, mission and everyday goal. So it's no wonder we're featuring the LA Zoo's new Scuba Team on the front page. Robert Larios (a.k.a. Chef Larios) did an awesome job putting this story together; I know you'll enjoy reading it. You'll also notice that we are starting to get quite a few letters to the editor. This has truly become a fantastic sounding board for you to release some steam or share some praise, so don't hold back; if you have something to say, just e-mail it to talk-back@cityemployeesclub.com

Last but not least, congratulations to our Club Scholarship winners. Jessica Moncayo, daughter of Club member Cynthia Beltran (Housing) was selected as the major scholarship winner. Recipients of the two smaller Club Scholarships were Eliza Brown, daughter of Club Member Rosalynn Brown (Rec and Parks), and P.A. Lava, son of Club member Amalia Lava (ITA). I know you'll be as impressed with the winners as we are. Best of luck to the three of you!

Have an excellent October!
