and fell over into the small ravine, upside down, and exhausted herself in attempts to right herself. The DART team arrived and began briefings with the LAFD and Dr. Purdue, D.V.M. A decision was made, and they rolled the horse over onto a specialized piece of equipment called a glide and slid the horse out of the ravine back onto the trail. Then the team waited to ensure the horse was safe until it awakened from the anesthesia and stood on its own, where an officer walked her out to safety. The horse and owner are doing fine, and no injuries were sustained.

This is the seventh rescue by DART this year.

Officer William Tranzow stands behind the horse; Officer Carlos Lopez stands in front of the horse; and Officer Stacey Dancy pulls the rope to assist with the rescue.

Lt. Jan Selder; Officer Julie Bastian; Officer Eric Gardner; Officer Hugh Briefman; Officer Stacey Dancy, and Officer Carlos Lopez all helped to rescue "HiFi."

"HiFi" is safe and happy.
