

¡Sí, Se Puede!

■ César Chávez Day celebrated at Olvera Street.

Story and photos by Michelle Moreno, Club Events Guru

“Sí Se Puede” (“Yes, We Can!”) was the chant shouted by hundreds of schoolchildren throughout the birthday celebration of César Chávez, held March 31 at Olvera Street. Dignitaries including Rushmore Cervantes, General Manager of El Pueblo; Lt. Governor Cruz Bustamante; and Councilwoman Jan Perry each shared inspiring messages about their admiration for this great activist and his mission to better the lives of farm workers. The event consisted of speeches, exhibits, arts and crafts, and live music provided by Mariachi Cielo Nuevo.

The Club thanks Rushmore Cervantes for assisting us in covering this worthwhile event.
