Of Moms, Enterprise And Benjamin Franklin

I want to thank all of you who sent in a picture of your Mom for our Mother's Day special. What better way to tell your Mom how much you love her than by showcasing them in front of your fellow 40,000 City employee co-workers.

Congratulations to Rodney Bernaldo and Shawn McCormick for sending me the correct answer to my Daylight Saving Time question in my column last month. You were both correct in saying that it was Benjamin Franklin who came up with the idea. And since that was so much fun I'm going to throw another contest out there. Whoever can tell me the real name of the Club's very own "Ticket Guy" will get a movie ticket to a cinema of their choice. Just email me at jhawkins@lacea.com.

Also, as you saw in the last couple of Alives!, we now have an Enterprise rental car discount. It's a straight 10 percent off their already low rates and even bigger savings at the downtown LA location. I just used Enterprise to rent a car in Spokane, Wash. (click on www.enterprise.com and then enter the Club's discount code) and not only did I get a great discount but I received service that is a throwback to the good old days, the days when customer service really meant customer service. When I checked in to get my car, the Enterprise rep, Sean Crooks, couldn't have been more helpful and kind. In fact, he was so good that I thought I was at the front counter of the Club being helped by our very own Lupe Medina. Needless to say I was very impressed, and from now on will always rent from Enterprise. See below for the discount code.

Have an excellent May!

- John
