

Running the City

■ Some DWP employees take part in the L.A. Marathon.

Story by Arlene Herrero, Club Counselor

Photos by Angel Gomez, Member Services Manager

DWP — Lots of DWP employees took part in the running – and biking – elements of the recent L.A. Marathon XX March 6 throughout the City. The bike ride was 20-plus miles, and the marathon was 26.2 miles.

The Club recognizes that there were probably many other City employees who participated in this great event; this story is just a partial (voluntary) list that Club members sent us. Alive! is very happy to publish this list and these photos; if there are other lists and/or photos out there of City employees participating in the most recent marathon or bike tour, send 'em in.

Thanks to Club Members Arfield Davis and Mary Ann Torres for allowing us to publish their photos. Here are the additional names of those who participated:

L.A. Natural History Museum In Need of Volunteer Docents

The Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County seeks volunteer docents. It's a great opportunity with wonderfully satisfying returns! Give a little time as a museum docent and you just might inspire wonder in children, discover new knowledge for yourself, and share experiences with like-minded people.

During the school year, docents enhance the museum experience of school children by introducing them to the museum's wonderful exhibits in one or more of 15 science and history halls. The museum's collections include dinosaurs, Native American cultures, mammals, California history, gems and minerals, marine biology and more.

Extensive training (26 weeks) is provided. Commitment is four hours one day per week the first year, two hours per week the second year.

Added perks include lectures, luncheons, periodic visits to other museums and points of interest, and special museum events.

The museum is now accepting applications for its fall training class. Call (213) 763-3531 for additional information.
