For the Kids

■ Rec and Parks hosts fun day for kids, families.

Story and photos by Angel Gomez, Member Services Manager

REC AND PARKS DEPT. — A free family festival dedicated to the children of the City of Angeles was held Oct. 15 at EPICC (Exposition Park Intergenerational Community Center).

The event was sponsored by Rec and Parks and TV station KTLA.

Kids Day L.A. mixed fun activities for children (including soccer, basketball and volleyball clinics) with practical advice and resources for parents and other caregivers from approximately 100 services providers specializing in arts, education and recreation.

The event included an activity center for teenagers, a make-and-take craft area, food booths, entertainment featuring children, and more.
