This month's winner is:

Ken Moody, ITA.

Here's Ken's winning response: This month's photo is of the "Bell of Dolores." It is located at El Pueblo de Los Angeles Historical Monument. This replica was presented to the City of Los Angeles by the Republic of Mexico in 1968. This cherished relic of Mexican history represents not only Mexico's bid for freedom, but also the beginning of democracy here in California. This bid for freedom began not in Mexico City, but in the village of Dolores.

It was here that Father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla was assigned as parish priest, where he became active in politics and sided with the less fortunate of Mexican society. On the night of Sept. 15, 1810, Father Hidalgo rang the parish church bell, now known as the "Bell of Dolores," to summon patriots to fight for their independence from Spain. Every year on Sept. 15, the President of Mexico tolls the original "Bell of Dolores," now hung at the National Palace in Mexico City.

Here are the rules:

- Winning contestants must be Club members in good standing. Everyone is welcome to submit responses, however. (Responses without Club membership numbers will be accepted but not eligible for the winning prize.)
