National Dispatchers Week—PART 2

■ DISPATCHERS WEEK PT. 2: Alive! continues its series focusing on the City's emergency dispatchers.

Story by Arlene Herrero, Club Counselor; Photos by Alive! staff: John Hawkins, Angel Gomez and Arlene Herrero

POLICE — Last month, as part of National Dispatchers Week (April 9-15), Alive! was proud to show you the faces of many of the people who toil behind the scenes, but without whom the City's emergency workers couldn't do their jobs.

We continue this month showing you more. This month, they're all from the LAPD Communications Division.

The Los Angeles Police Department was proud and excited to celebrate its very own dispatchers during "National Dispatchers' Week." The department honored the Police Service Representatives (911 Dispatchers) for their commitment to service and dedication to public safety.

The Club says thanks to all the dispatchers and to Capt. Sharyn Buck, Marisol Vielma, Natrese Thomas and all the Watch Commanders who allowed us to come out and take pictures at all hours of the night and day.

Part 3 next month: Transportation Dispatchers.

Capt. Sharyn Buck, Commanding Officer of Communications Division
