Club Member's Daughter Is Author

■ New book has Club connection.

Whitney, 17, is a freshman at Cal State Bakersfield. The book, published by Magic Valley Publishing, can be ordered at local bookstores or online at amazon.com. Congratulations to Whitney and her parents, Leonard and Elaine Walker, on this great accomplishment!

CLUB HEADQUARTERS — Whitney Walker, daughter of Club Member Leonard Walker, Director of Fleet Services, General Services, has published her first book.

The book, Doubling Destiny, tells the story of Destiny Davidson as she handles the struggles of school, friendships and the desire to be a basketball player. The book is a testimony on how these challenges should be handled. It has a positive influence on young and adult readers. The journey begins at birth and ends in college, and is geared toward middle-school-aged readers.

Ice, Ice Baby

■ Downtown on Ice returns Nov. 16 for the holidays.

REC AND PARKS — Downtown chills out under the sun and stars as one of the Southland's largest holiday outdoor ice-skating rinks, Downtown on Ice, glides into its ninth spectacular season Nov. 16 through Jan. 15 at Pershing Square (532 South Olive).

Downtown on Ice is made possible by sponsorship from Rec and Parks, the LA Kings and Councilwoman and Club Member Jan Perry.

As the Rockefeller Center of the west, the vast outdoor ice oasis lies nestled downtown in the heart of the city among the towering skyscrapers and historical landmarks, easily accessible by car or Metro stop.

Complete with a series of free live concerts, free hockey clinics, "glide-in" movies, a free winter carnival and community special events, the conveniently located facility unites an estimated 500,000 spectators and 200,000 skating enthusiasts for unique, healthy and safe seasonal recreation in.

Downtown on Ice is open seven days a week (including holidays). Admission is $6 per skating session, plus skate rental. Call (213) 847-4970 or toll free or (888) LA-PARKS (527-2757) for more information.
