COUNCIL — The 10th annual Central Avenue Jazz Festival is scheduled to take place July 28 and 29 at Central Avenue and 42nd Street in South Los Angeles in front of the historic Dunbar Hotel. The Dunbar Hotel played a large role in African American history in Los Angeles. Jazz greats including John Coltrane and Billie Holiday stayed when visiting the City.

The Jazz Festival is a unique cultural event that pays tribute to the significant contributions that African Americans made on Central Avenue, the birthplace of West Coast jazz and was nationally recognized as a jazz hot spot from the 1920s to the 1950s. The jazz festival is dedicated to the preservation and celebration of jazz and African American heritage.

This weekend event is free and open to the public, and will feature live music, crafts and food booths; company-sponsored booths; and government information booths. It promises to be an exciting weekend full of fun and community pride.

Information: (213) 473-2302.

Kicking off last year's jazz festival were, among others, Councilwoman Jan Perry, Club Member, and Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa.

The Word on the Street

Cecilia Talbot,
Claims Administrator

"I evaluate your life insurance service as excellent! Everyone has been so helpful. I really appreciated everyone who I had to contact on the phone or in person for all their help concerning the Club. Everyone's cooperation is greatly appreciated. The book [The Fall of Freddie the Leaf] is wonderful. I keep re-reading it and I find comfort again and again. It has eased my grieving some. To all, thank you for your thoughtfulness and [I want] to tell you how very much it meant. May God bless all of you for your kindness."

— Carmen Haro and family,
March 2007

You probably won't get to meet Club Claims Administrator Cecilia Talbot very often... until you really need her. That's when her service shines. So, to assure you that you are in good hands, from time to time Alive! will reprint letters commending the service given by Cecilia and her excellent staff. —Ed.
