

John's Picture Perfect Contest

"This is one of my favorite photos I took in San Felipe, Baja California, of a fisherman, just one day after I had got stung by a stingray in the Sea of Cortez. If I would ever write a book of my travels in Mexico, this picture would sure be a good candidate for its cover."

— Robbie Horvath, HTP Mechanic

John's comments: Hey, if I ever write a book on my travels to San Felipe, I would want to use this photo, too! It tells such a story: the surf, the birds, the fish on the string, the classic fisherman. I love it! Thanks, Robbie!

— Gary Harris, DWP

John's comments: A beautiful picture with wonderful colors ... and what better subject to be enveloped in this beautiful sunset than a DWP power line, sending electricity to Los Angeles. Thanks, Gary!

"This is a photo of a caribou, grazing in Denali National Park, from a vacation in Alaska I took with my wife."

— Todd Rother, DWP

John's comments: This looks like it came right out of National Geographic. Nice work, guys!

"My photo from Peggy's Cove, Nova Scotia Canada."

— Brian Doherty

John's comments: Brian, this is a beautiful photo! When I toured Nova Scotia in my car years ago, I never came close to getting such a classic shot. Nice work!
