Graduations

Congratulations!

Daniel R. Monroe graduated from Animo Inglewood Charter High School in June. He plans to attend California State University, Dominguez Hills in the fall and major in art with a minor in African American Studies. At Animo, Daniel received numerous scholarships and awards, including the Susan Alpay Memorial Scholarship – Palos Verdes Art Institute. He was the youngest to receive this prestigious honor. His artistic abilities earned him a full scholarship to attend Ryman Arts Academy at the University of Southern California from 2005 through 2007. Daniel is the son of Schiry Monroe, DWP, and James Monroe, Retired, DWP.

Neil Borja graduated as valedictorian from the Portola Highly Gifted Magnet Middle School located in Tarzana. He also received three other prestigious awards: Perfect Attendance (for three years), President's Award for Outstanding Academic Excellence and the Gold Seal Award for being an active member of the California Junior Scholarship Federation for three years. Neil plans to attend the North Hollywood Highly Gifted Magnet Center for High School. Proud parents are Neilo Borja, Public Works/Sanitation, and Rowena Borja, Financial Analyst, Airports.

Breeallé Hollyfield graduated with honors from Long Beach Polytechnic High School in Long Beach. She also earned a medallion for earning 260 credits, one full semester more than required to graduate. She plans to attend Cal State Los Angeles University to pursue her goals of majoring in forensic science. She is the daughter of Jeffrey B. Hollyfield, Public Works/Sanitation.

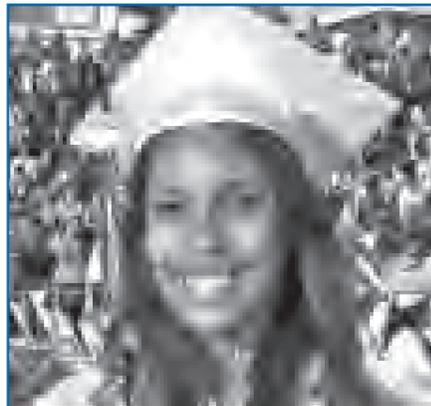

Nikaela Harris graduated from the fifth grade from Knollwood Elementary, Granada Hills. Nikaela is very bright, and she will start sixth grade at age 9. Nikaela is the daughter of Bobby Harris, DWP, and L'keva Harris, LAPD.

Tonica Houston graduated from Pepperdine University with a Master's degree in psychology. Her future plan is to continue her education to receive either a Ph.D or Psy.D. She's with the Scientific Investigation Division, Latent Print Section, at the Ahmanson Recruit Training Center.

Jahnelle Washington graduated from Dodson Middle School in Rancho Palos Verdes. She plans to attend King Drew Medical Magnet High School in August. She is the niece of Adriana Courseault, Personnel. "Congratulations, all your hard work paid off! Love, Grandma Cristina, Eugene, Michelle and Adriana."

Soukeyna Mia Moore graduated from St. Bernard Catholic High School in Playa del Rey. Soukeyna will attend Humboldt State University in the fall, majoring in wildlife conservation and management. Her mom is Jene Brown, Library.

Leslie Andrea Steward graduated from John A. Rowland High School in June 12 and plans to attend Bethune-Cookman University, Daytona Beach, Fla., in the fall. Leslie will study interior design. She is the daughter of Carmen Steward, Fire and Police Pensions.
