Great Kids Mean More Scholarships

Club nearly triples the number of Scholarship recipients, due to quality of submissions. Zavala takes top honors.

Jorge Zavala

CLUB HEADQUARTERS – Members sent in so many great submissions for the Club Scholarship 2008 program that the Club nearly tripled the number of winners!

And the Club is proud to announce that Jorge Zavala, son of Jose Zavala, Airports, has won the top prize: $3,500 toward college expenses.

"We were amazed at the quality of scholarship applications we received this year," said John Hawkins, Club CEO. "We feel honored to increase the number of grants we provide, from five or six to 14.

"It's all because of the great people we have as Club Members."

Zavala graduated from Hesperia High School in June and now attends the University of California, Irvine, as a scholar and baseball player. "Life is such a wonderful thing, and we must enjoy it," he wrote in his scholarship essay. "The whole world is in front of us; all we have to do is take advantage."

For all the winners, see page 36.

Schedule of Bands

11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Rick's Jamnesia

Rick's Jamnesia, an established rock, blues, funk and R&B band, was formed in the early 1990s by bass player Rick Williams, Warehouse and Tool Worker, Harbor.

Rick's Jamnesia also includes: Teri Williams, vocals; Titus Smith, Lieutenant, Port Police, percussion; Lee Tyiska, vocals and percussion; "Big" Walt Fletcher, guitar; Doug Lloyd, keyboards; Hugh Laxenetta, guitar and vocals; and Rick Williams Jr., drums, who wants to grow up and work for the City, just like his dad, Rick Sr.

1 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

SoulShot

While SoulShot sounds like it's new to ClubFest, it really isn't – it's the same band you've loved the last two years, when it was called Bad Boyz and Company. SoulShot covers James Brown, Marvin Gaye and Sam Cooke, to Led Zeppelin and The Red Hot Chili Peppers, and performs an exciting style of funk, rock, oldies and originals. Based in San Pedro, the band has appeared in the Harbor area at Music by the Sea, the Brewing Company and the Warner Grand Theatre, winning the "battle of the bands" at the Taste of San Pedro in 2006. SoulShot has also played Latitudes in Manhattan Beach and the Brass Elephant in Monrovia and are seen monthly at Taco Beach in Long Beach.

SoulShot consists of Horace Coleman, vocals; Chris (Doc) McCollum, keyboards/vocals; Byron (Kenny) Cole, bass; Dave Dominguez, guitar/vocals; and Adam Idell, drums.
