Animal Services stages a mobile adoption event in Beverly Hills.

Story and photos by Eboné Moses, Club Counselor

On Dec. 5 in Roxbury Park in Beverly Hills, the Animal Services' West Los Angeles shelter held a mobile adoption event.

Animal Services employees joined forces with other agencies for the event. The West LA Shelter is at 11361 W. Pico Blvd., 90064.

Adoption prices are from $87 to $106, which includes updating your new pet's shot records, microchips, and spay or neutering. Additionally, the shelter offers a number of other services, including but not limited to vaccinations, training, spay and neutering, and microchipping.

Pictured here are some of the lovely animals waiting for loving homes. We would love to document you and your new friend, so don't hesitate to adopt one of them.
