Story and photos by Eboné Moses, Club Counselor

A party was held Jan. 29 for Willie Buggs, who retired from the Records Management Division, City Clerk's Office, after 29 years of City service.

His party was held at Acapulco restaurant on Sunset Boulevard in Hollywood.

He started his City career at the Port in 1980 and was promoted to the Record Management Division, City Clerk's Office, in March 1984. There, he became the Storekeeper responsible for all records coming in and out of the City Records Center.

The Club wishes Willie the best in his retirement!

Special thanks to Todd Gaydowski, City Clerk's Office, for his assistance.
