On Oct. 26, the DWP's Customer Contact Center (CCC) and Revenue Recovery Group (RRG) held their second annual Breast Cancer Awareness Celebration at the John Ferrero Building (JFB).

Wanda Barnett, DWP Manager, said that the event was a huge success because of the participation of the employees. The theme for the event was "Warriors in Pink." The employees, both male and female, showed their support by wearing pink and participating in the different events on the JFB patio from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The employees enjoyed food and games on the patio during their lunch hour surrounded by pink balloons and enjoying the music provided by Martin Santillan.

All of the proceeds made from the sale of the food and a 50/50 raffle was sent to the Breast Cancer Awareness Foundation.

Wanda Barnett said that the CCC and RRG have numerous celebrations throughout the year, but the Breast Cancer Awareness Celebration is her favorite. She said, "It is an opportunity for women and men to come together in a festive environment to promote awareness and celebrate life – the warriors."

She said it was the hard work of her committee who made this year's event enjoyable for everyone that attended. She said, "It will be even bigger and better next year." The committee consisted of Romona Browne, Sabrena Saucer, Leo Gurrola, Martin Santillan, Robin Haynes, Regina Jones, Sung Shin Yi, Deborah Herndon, Vina Tan, Edward Casebeer, Pedro Anguiano, and Heriberto De La Torre.
