

LAPD

Ana Pugliese (right) imitated Chris McNabb.

At the Halloween party.

Keyshae Paylor was "Batwoman."

One scary Halloween costume!

Costume Party

9-1-1 Operators celebrate in their yearly style.

Photos courtesy Jean Sarfaty, LAPD Communications

LAPD Communications Division had its annual Halloween Costume Contest Oct. 31 with prizes and a costume parade hosted by Sr. PSR Julia Cesena, Lt. Vic Dennis and PSR 3 Robyn Fraiser. A delicious spooky potluck was arranged by PSR II Isabel Gonzalez and Jean Sarfaty.

Here are some of the costumes worn by various Police Service Representatives. Some of the Valley PSRs came dressed as... each other! Hilarious idea.

Laura Cruz was a goddess.

Jean Sarfaty, Club Member, dressed as the scary guy from the Scream movies.

Marissa Assaf was a cave woman.

Halloween at LAPD Communications

Lourdes Coronado and her daughter, Sophia, were a bee and a "little calf."

Phaser on stun!

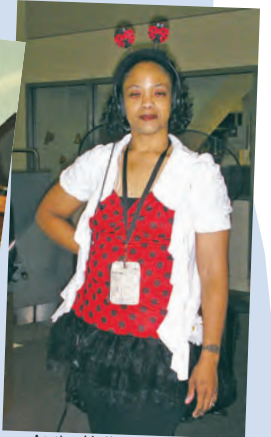

Jesse Alcaarez was an Army sergeant.

Charlene Johnson dressed as a sheriff.

Nicole Carr was a cowgirl.

At the Halloween party.

Mardi Gras time!

At the Halloween party.

Cathy Sotos walks like an Egyptian.

Carlos Marsh imitated Lil' Wayne.

Hmmmm, we're stumped.

???

Mike Schmidt (left) imitated coworker Josh Peer.

Somewhere over the rainbow was Debi Herdrich.

Izzy Gonzalez dressed as Flo, we presume from the TV sitcom Alice.