I would like to extend a very hearty and heartfelt "Job well done!" to all of the people who helped move this incredible piece of history thru the streets of LA. This was an amazing feat of cooperation, determination and dedication. From city employees to private companies, from volunteers to the people of Los Angeles, Thank You for bringing her home.

On Sept. 7, Officer Vincent Roddy joined the ranks of the Airport Police, following graduation from the Los Angeles Police Academy downtown.

Roddy was selected as class vice president by his academy peers. He was also voted top cadet in report writing and in tactical training, as well as number two in academics.

Airport Police Chief Michael T. Hyams performed the swearing-in ceremony. Also in attendance were Asst. Chief Brian Walker, Capt. Latasha Wells Amerson, Lt. Edward Trahan, and several other Airport Police personnel. Chief Hyams said, "It is an honor to welcome such a high achiever to the Airport Police family. His accomplishments are the result of his hard work and dedication. I am confident he will be a positive addition to our agency."

Officer Roddy is expected to complete a six-month Field Training Program specific to airport law enforcement under the guidance of a Field Training Officer before being assigned to Patrol Services Section.
