Blanket the City: A Club winter tradition

Help the Club take care of those living on the streets this winter.

Last year, we put out the call to help those in need downtown. And Club Members came through! So we're continuing Blanket the City this winter.

Marvin Brown gets cloaked by John Hawkins as the temperature dips below 50 degrees.

It started last year with John Hawkins, Club CEO, and Angel Gomez, Club Member Services Manager, coming into the Club Store one December night, shivering from the cold. And if they were chilly, they thought, what about those living on the streets?

So they hatched a plan: pass out blankets to those living on the streets downtown, to Blanket the City. That first night, they gave away eight blankets. That was just a start.

During the winter months, the Club will be handing out military-grade blankets to those who really need them.

Blanket the City has become a new winter tradition here the Club!

Angel Gomez drapes a blanket over a very cold Taylor.

Won't you join the effort?
Here's how:

- The military-grade blankets cost $7 each.
- Contribute what you can, and the Club will purchase blankets and hand them out for you.
- Want to contribute? Contact John Hawkins or Angel Gomez, and we'll take it from there:
- jhawkins@cityemployeesclub.com or agomez@cityemployeesclub.com

Cane Faulkner was about to spend a cold night in the Second Street Tunnel, but now he has a "Club" blanket to keep him warm.

Angel Gomez finishes draping a sleeping Melvin Dillon with the warmth of the Club.

Carlos gets first-class treatment from the "Blanket Angel."

Buckets & Blankets!

Join us as we help those who live on the streets with Buckets and Blankets. Donate to the cause as the Club distributes food, toiletries and blankets to those in need (blankets cost $7 each).

Buckets and Blankets is produced in cooperation with the Club Angels program and Creative Solutions – Fred Fowlks and Sue Manzo, LAFD.
