Lineman's Rodeo

Event aims to crown the best climbers.

Support from the team, as their man goes up.

Racing the clock.

To the top.

Story and photos by Gedina Bergstrom, Club Counselor

Linemen groups from all over Southern California gathered at the Truesdale Yard May 18 to compete against one another to determine the best linemen. The event was part of a national annual contest.

There were five events scheduled for power journeyman level linemen and apprentice linemen. The event included live music, a kid's corner with a petting zoo, vendor booths, magicians, and great food!

Thanks to all who made this a great event.

Steve Torres, Club Member, and an employee staff the conservation booth.

In the judge's tent, with a hello from Bill Herriott, Club Member.

Yummy food was available in the food tent.

DWP employees gather for a group picture.

A team gets instructions from judges.

A happy volunteer and DWP Employee.

Team 23 watches as the competition gets heated.

Head judges look on over the events. Mark Berenbach, Club Member, is in the middle.

In this event, linemen carry an egg in a bag up the pole. At the top they remove the egg and place it in their mouth, leaving the bag at the top, and making it back to the bottom as fast as they can.
