VAN NUYS: Nearly 100 Firefighters extinguished a blaze at the vacant Pinecrest School in Van Nuys, according to Brian Humphrey, LAFD spokesman. The blaze, in the 14100 block of Sherman Way, was extinguished before noon Dec. 7. It took 96 firefighters 43 minutes to extinguish the blaze confined to the two-story building, officials said. The former campus has several structures scheduled to be demolished, officials said. No injuries were reported in the fire, and its cause is reported to be still under investigation.
