East Valley Open House

Sanitation's East Valley Yard celebrates annual open house.

On April 26, Public Works' East Valley Sanitation Yard threw an open house for the community to come and enjoy. Sanitation opened its doors for the community to come and experience the Department's functions and operations. There was food, drinks and even fun activities for the children and their families. This event was part of Sanitation's series of annual yard open houses.

The area-wide Sanitation open houses started in 2005 to reach out to the community. As Sanitation services have modernized and become more automated, there has been less personal contact between residents and our employees. The open house is one way for Sanitation to bridge the gap.

The Open House is also a great way to educate residents about what we do and the direction Sanitation is headed in the future. Employees volunteer their time to make the open house events a success. There are tours of the facilities with different stations that offer information on the related Departments including the mulching facilities, container services, recycling division, etc.

Trucks are staged so that the public can observe the equipment in a safe environment. The Refuse Collection Truck Operators volunteer their time and operate the trucks for the duration of the event. Kids love to come and see the equipment. They get a chance to meet the operators, sit in the trucks, operate some of the mechanical attachments and honk the horns. There is a talking recycling bin that roams around the yard. There are also games for the kids, raffles, giveaways and free food.

Big thanks to Superintendent Ron Lee for allowing the Club to be part of this event.
