Well Done, Maisha!

Club congratulates 911 operator during annual Dispatchers Week.

During the recent National Dispatchers Week, which recognizes and honors 911 dispatchers across the country, the Club honored Maisha Parnell, PSR, Club Member, for exceptional service.

The local ceremony for National Dispatchers Week was held April 17 at the Valley Communications Center.

Maisha Parnell, Police Service Representative, Club Member (left), was honored by the Club with a plaque for exceptional City service. Club Counselor Dalila Vielma presented the plaque to Maisha during National Dispatchers Week.

Get Cracking!

Harbor to host 15th annual Lobster Fest.

The annual Lobster Festival, one of the Port of LA's biggest social events of the year, is more than just lobster. It's turned into a multi-attraction event, with top indie bands, an army of food trucks (some of them famous), and lots of great food other than lobster.

But it's the lobster directly from Maine that attracts most of the attendees.

This year's Lobster Festival is set for Sept. 12 - 14 at Ports O'Call Village on the LA Waterfront. There will be free rides on the Red Car all weekend.

Admission to the festival does not include the cost of food. For food prices, go to: lobsterfest.com

The Lobster Festival is an official event of the Port of Los Angeles.
